

Waters Reclaimed  Futures Sustained

Once a picturesque canal, it has now fallen into disrepair, overwhelmed by solid waste and pollution, its waters stagnant and foul. Once a source of natural beauty, it is now an eyesore, troubling both residents and the environment.

Project Bayou, an initiative by Invictus students, is committed to reviving it by clearing the waste and restoring clean water flow. We aim to transform it back into a vibrant, healthy waterway.

